

Autumn Winter Collection 2007/08

'A Gym Kit of 870 grams of pure innovation'

The Zegna Sport collection for Autumn Winter 2007 - 2008 fuses technical sport inspired design with quality and comfort. Designed for the leisure needs of today's modern man, who is both sporty and sophisticated. Zegna Sport has always proven a leader in high performance and innovation within active sportswear.

Gym Culture

Zegna Sport has created a four piece sports wardrobe in an innovative (off) shoulder satchel, weighing less than a kilo.

The innovative 'gym kit' makes going to the gym simple and functional, incorporating all the essential gym wear components folded in one compact kit bag.

- Nylon sports jacket (which doubles as the kit bag)
- Lightweight nylon track-pant
- Microfibre gym shorts
- Stretch cotton t-shirt

Light, functional and practical for traveling the 'Gym Kit' is 870 grams of innovation, designed for the active man on the run, who juggles the demands of work and workout.

Available in this season's colour palette of Grey, Barolo and Black this high performing leisure offering is both functional and fashionable.

The Gym culture look is completed with a Zegna Sport track top and cross training shoes with light rubber soles ideal for the gym and running.
